CHILD SUPPORT ORDERED BY THE COURT )

ORDER

This Court having determined that child support is important to the Wind River Indian Reservation and that the Shoshone and Arapahoe Tribes have not established any guidelines upon which to calculate support, and it appearing that such rules should be adopted;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that, pursuant to the inherent authority of the Court the following Rules of Court be, and the same are hereby, adopted to govern all proceedings that involve the determination and payment of child support in the Shoshone and Arapahoe Tribal Court:

RULE OF COURT NO. CV-104
CHILD SUPPORT DETERMINATION

Whenever the issue of the determination of child support is before the Court the Child Support Guidelines found in W.S. 20-6-301-304 shall be followed by the judge when the State of Wyoming is a party to the action.

RULE OF COURT NO. CV-105
CHILD SUPPORT PAYMENTS

All child support payments that are owed to the State of Wyoming shall be paid to the State office in Cheyenne, Wyoming.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Court Administrator shall make this order and these rules available for public inspection and copying at no charge.

Dated this 30th day of April, 1996.

John St. Clair, Chief Judge
Shoshone and Arapahoe Tribal Court
