

TITLE I GENERAL PROVISIONS

CHAPTER 1 PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

Section 1-1-1 Inherent Tribal Authority

The power to legislate for the administration of justice for an Indian tribe extends back to time immemorial if not limited by Congress or itself. This exercise of inherent tribal sovereignty provides the basis upon which this Code is enacted. It is a general act intended as a unified coverage of its subject matter, and no part of it shall be deemed impliedly repealed by subsequent legislation if it can be reasonably avoided.

Section 1-1-2 Name of Code

This law and order code shall be known as the Law and Order Code of the Shoshone and Arapaho Tribes of the Wind River Indian Reservation and may be referred to as the Code and abbreviated as S&A LOC. Subcodes and rules included herein may be cited by the name given in the Subcode or rule heading.

Section 1-1-3 Prior Inconsistent Resolutions and Ordinances Repealed

Any and all resolutions and ordinances of the Joint Business Council, Shoshone and Arapaho Tribes which conflict in any way with the provisions of this Law and Order Code are hereby repealed to the extent that they are inconsistent with or conflict with, or are contrary to the spirit and/or purpose of this Law and Order Code. Those which do not conflict will remain in effect.

(2) No amendment shall be effective until published by the tribes.

CHAPTER 2 JURISDICTION

This action is deemed necessary as a result of the confusion and conflicts caused by the increased contact and interaction between the tribes, their members, and other residents of the reservation and other persons and entities over which the tribes have not previously elected to exercise jurisdiction. The jurisdictional provisions of this Law and Order Code, to insure maximum protection for the tribes, their members and other residents of the reservation, should be applied equally to all persons.
